DUDNEY HILL

Health is not very good at present. Most everybody is suffering a bad cold.

Bro. Henry Hall of Meagsville, will preach here next Sunday at 2:30 o'clock. Everybody is cordially invited.

Our Sunday school is progressing nicely, and much interest is being taken in the study of the lessons, which are very interesting.

Mrs. R. C. Pharris has been visiting Mrs. A. G. Mabry on R-2.

W. C. Reed and wife, of Haile Hollow, spent Sunday with Mrs. Reed's sister, Mrs. J. M. Dudney.

Thomas Mabry had a working last Thursday. There was a good crowd present and much work was accomplished.

Mrs. Bob Johnson of Martin's creek, has been visiting her mother, Mrs. Brina Bowman.

Mrs. Mary Chaffin gave a quilting last Thursday.

Ben, the little son of Mrs. Addie Young, who was kicked by a mule several days ago, is getting along nicely. The kick was in the forehead and was very painful.

Nathan Johnson and son, Durwood, were recent guests of I. F. Netherton.

Jessie Young and wife and niece, Lizzie Chaffin, were recent guests of Mrs. Will Dudney. Mrs. Dudney is expected to leave right soon for India, where she will join her husband.

Mrs. Lela Ellis spent Thursday with Mrs. Martha Mabry.

Garland Jackson and wife spent last week-end with George Netherton and family.

Fowler Trisdale and wife were the recent guests of his parents, Bill Trisdale and wife.

Gathering corn and picking peas, seems to be the order of the day.

Mrs. I. F. Netherton was the guest of her niece, Mrs. Nathan Johnson, near Gainesboro.

LOCAL NEWS.

T. B. Anderson, of Hendersonville, formerly of this county, who was called here by the illness and death of his brother-in-law, T. M. Cason, R-2, last week, returned home Saturday. He was accompanied by his niece, Mrs. Lou Young, who will visit her father, Jas. A. Anderson.

J. L. Scantland and family, of R-2, left last week for Jackson, Tenn., where they will reside. Mr. Scantland has been holding the office of Justice of the Peace for several years, and was one of the leading citizens in his district. We regret to lose families of this type.

LAND SALE.

L. J. Jackson et al.
VS
Haskell Pippin.
In the County Court of Jackson County, Tennessee.

In obedience to a decree, rendered by the County Court, at Gainesboro, Tennessee, at the October term, 1922, in the above styled case, I will, on Saturday the 18th day of November, 1922, at the east door of the courthouse in Gainesboro, sell one tract of land described in the pleadings as the farm owned by E. L. Jackson, deceased, in his lifetime. A full description of said lands will be given on day of sale.

Said land lies in the 12th civil district of Jackson County, and is bounded north by the lands of Henry and Doug Platt; south by James Platt; east by John Chaffin; and west by George and Doug Platt, containing 160 acres more or less.

Said land will be sold for one-third cash on day of sale, balance on a credit of one and two years. Notes with good personal security will be required of the purchaser, and a lien retained on the land sold as further security.

This October 12, 1922.

ON PREMISES

SATURDAY, NOV. 11

10:30 A. M.

THE IMPROVEMENTS consist of a good six room residence, three tenant houses, one extra good, large barn 68 x 100 feet, several small barns and outbuildings. It is well fenced and has abundance of stock water and a fine well at residence.

THE LAND is practically level and subject to cultivation with tractor and has been subdivided and will be sold in three tracts of about 100 acres each, and one tract of about 80 acres.

Will also be offered as a whole if requested.

MR FARM BUYER now is an opportune time to buy a farm and home. General conditions all over the country are now good. Manufacturers have called men to work by millions. Money conditions are much improved and business in every line has begun to hum. Farm lands always advance as business improves and the prospective land buyer who fails to buy land now will soon regret it. Look this over carefully, select your tract or tracts. Be at the sale and remember each and every tract will be sold positively at the high dollar regardless of price.

Will consider other good property as part payment.

EASY TERMS and POSSESSION JANUARY 1st.
